PREFACE.

The present volume marks the fortieth year of continuous publication of Rowell's American Newspaper Directory. As it appeared in 1869 the Directory was the first publication to give a complete list of American newspapers and periodicals, together with circulation ratings. From the outset its acknowledged position as the highest authority upon newspaper statistics has been fully maintained and each year, it is believed, through the experience of its compilers and additional means of gaining information, it has become more accurate and trustworthy.

During the entire period of its existence the Directory has been, and still remains, under the direct supervision of its founder, Mr. George P. Rowell. He has witnessed during these two score years the growth of a marked tendency among newspaper publishers toward honest treatment of advertisers and an insistent demand from advertisers to be told what amount of service is actually rendered them in return for the money expended for publicity. His understanding of the meaning of the word circulation—copies printed—is widely regarded as more practicable than any other that has ever been proposed.

In the Directory for the year 1879 letter ratings, explained by a key, were first employed to indicate the editions printed by publications that would not set forth the facts in any definite and satisfactory way. The letter ratings were used until one year ago, and then, in the 1907 book, they gave place to a resumé of past ratings, set forth in plain words. The change has proved acceptable to Directory purchasers, who are now able to determine at a glance whether or not any publication has submitted a satisfactory statement of copies printed, and, if not, to know the estimated figures accorded by the Directory editor. The omission of a rating of copies printed denotes, with few exceptions, that the paper has never established a claim to have issued regularly so many as an average of 1,000 copies for the period of a full year. The exceptions are found in the cases of papers which have consolidated during the year or which have begun publication since the previous edition of the Directory went to press.

There is an encouraging increase in the number of papers and periodicals which furnish definite and satisfactory information upon which a reliable rating of copies printed can be based. This year such information comes from nearly eighteen hundred publications, which is more than a quarter of all that print regularly so many as a thousand copies.

Four papers have secured the Star Guarantee of the Directory during the twelve-month, and with two exceptions those which secured the Guarantee in previous years have rendered acceptable statements. The total number of papers which now have the Star is sixty-six. The complete list of papers comprising the Star Galaxy appears below.

COST OF ADVERTISING

—IN—

Rowell's American Newspaper Directory FOR 1909

The next issue of Rowell's American Newspaper Directory will appear during the second half of May, 1909. The subscription price of the book is $10, net cash. It will be delivered, carriage paid, to any point in North America on receipt of price.

DISPLAYED ADVERTISEMENTS

All displayed advertisements in Rowell's American Newspaper Directory for 1909 will appear in the catalogue part of the book and within the pages of the respective States, thus giving a publisher's display advertisement virtually a preferred position at no advance over the ordinary rate.

One-quarter page costs $20, including a free copy of the book

One-half page costs $30, including a free copy of the book

One page costs $50, including a free copy of the book

Where a publisher wishes his display advertisement to appear on or opposite the page of the catalogue description of his own paper, the charge for such display space will be DOUBLE the prices mentioned in the above schedule.

PUBLISHERS' ANNOUNCEMENTS

A Publisher's Announcement may have a place in the Directory in the column with and directly following the catalogue description of the paper, being set in type uniform with the letterpress, preceded by the words, Publisher's Announcement. In such an announcement it is possible for a publisher to say to the advertiser anything and everything that he claims in the way of superiority of his paper over others, and to place his statement in a spot where the advertiser cannot fail to read it. The charge for such an announcement is $1 a line (average six words to a line).

Orders amounting to less than $10 cannot be accepted unless paid for in advance. Publishers' announcements of less than twenty lines do not entitle the publisher to a free copy of the book.

DISCOUNT FOR CASH

Five per cent may be deducted from prices named, on orders amounting to ten dollars or more, if copy of advertisement and check in full settlement accompany the order.

ROWELL'S American Newspaper Directory

ISSUED ANNUALLY.

ESTABLISHED 1869.

This work is the accepted authoritative source of information on Newspaper Statistics in the United States and Canada.

Advertisers, Advertising Agents, Editors, Politicians and the Departments of the Government rely upon its statements as the recognized authority.

It gives a brief description of each place in which newspapers are published, population, railroads, local industries, name and location of county, etc., etc

It gives the names of all Newspapers and other Periodicals.

It gives the Politics, Religion, Class, Nationality, etc.

It gives the Frequency of Issue.

It gives the Editor's name.

It gives the Publisher's name.

It gives the Size of the Paper.

It gives the Subscription Price.

It gives the Date of Establishment.

It gives the Circulation—that is the number of copies printed for a series of years past, thus enabling an advertiser to judge of the probable future.

It gives a separate list of all papers credited in the body of the book with issuing regularly over one thousand copies.

It gives a separate list of all newspapers having a Sunday issue.

It gives a list of all Class Publications (Religious, Agricultural, Medical, Trade, in Foreign Languages, etc.), and a complete index to each class.

It also contains other valuable tabulations and classifications.

The price of ROWELL'S AMERICAN NEWSPAPER DIRECTORY is TEN Dollars—net cash, all transportation charges prepaid.

As the most important portion of the information supplied by a mercantile agency consists of a report of the financial strength of the person about whom information is asked, so is the circulation (that is, the editions printed) of a newspaper generally considered the point upon which information will be of most value to the advertiser. The greatest possible care is taken to make the DIRECTORY reports correct. Every publisher is applied to systematically. All information is taken in a form which excludes any but definite statements, and every effort is made to protect honest publishers against such as would resort to disingenuous reports to their fair advantage.

RULES AND USAGES THAT PREVAIL IN THE ANNUAL REVISIONS OF ROWELL'S AMERICAN NEWS- PAPER DIRECTORY.

For forty years Rowell's American Newspaper Directory has been issued regularly and has been the one authentic and trustworthy authority concerning the number of copies issued by American newspapers.

The book consists of four parts.

Part I. contains a catalogue of all American periodical publications.

Part II. consists of a list of all publications rated in Part I. as issuing regularly 1,000 copies or more.

Part III. consists of a complete list of papers issued on Sunday.

Part IV. consists of a complete catalogue of Class and Trade papers.

The price of the Directory is Ten dollars.

As soon as an edition of the Directory is issued a revision is begun for the edition to follow.

For each revision it is the publisher's privilege to furnish any correction that may be necessary for a correct description.

It is every publisher's privilege to have the circulation rating of his paper brought up to date if he will file with the Directory editor a detailed statement showing his actual issues for the entire twelve months of the calendar year preceding.

Each letter or report from a newspaper is read and every change noted. Correspondence coming too late for attention is held over for the next revision.

"New Newspapers" heard of since the revision for the last edition, are communicated with, and if late copies or detailed descriptions are obtained the papers are given a place in the Directory catalogue.

"Publisher's Announcements," which follow the description of a paper in the catalogue portion of the book, are paid advertisements wherein it is the newspaper publisher's privilege to make any statement, on his own responsibility, that he deems important to bring to the attention of every one who consults the Directory with a view of selecting suitable papers in which to insert an advertisement. Such announcements are put in type as they are received, and inserted in the body of the book as the pages are made up. The cost is one dollar a line (average six words to a line). Proofs are exhibited in advance if desired.

The Directory is intended to contain a complete catalogue of all newspapers published, and a statement or estimate of the number of copies printed by each; consequently, neither the name nor the rating of a paper can be omitted in response to a request to that effect.

Unless there are strong reasons to the contrary, the name of a publication that is not admitted to the United States mails as second-class matter is not entered in the Directory, and under the same restrictions, any publication admitted as second-class matter is considered entitled to a place in the Directory.

It is not intended that publications of ephemeral character shall have a place in the Directory. When in doubt whether a publication should be included or excluded, it is always excluded.

In cases where a paper is dated from two or more places it is catalogued under the town where it is actually issued and a reference to it is given space under the town where it purports to be issued, unless a cogent reason is urged by the publisher of the paper in question why a different course should be pursued.

When one or more editions of a newspaper are issued for another town or village, the words "prints an edition for" (naming town), or "prints special editions for neighboring towns," are added to its description, and the rating in such cases is specified as "combined circulation." No mention of such extra edition is made under the town where it purports to be issued.

When the name of a paper appears in the Directory catalogue for the first time no rating of copies printed is intended to be accorded unless the paper has been published for the period of a full year or more or is the successor of another paper previously described.

To publications that do not admit advertisements in their columns no rating of the number of copies printed is accorded.

The actual average edition issued the year past is always stated in plain figures if the necessary information is furnished.

To report the editions he issues in such a way as to convey definite information to an inquirer, it is deemed necessary that a publisher shall state what the output has been for each separate issue for an entire year.

Advertisers think that they can judge more intelligently from a knowledge of what editions have been issued for a year past than from any sort of statement of what a publisher hopes or believes he will issue for a year to come. It is his privilege to set forth his hopes and beliefs in a publisher's announcement if he thinks it likely to benefit him sufficient to warrant the expense.

A statement of copies printed is required to be signed. If signed with a hand stamp, or with initials, or by some person whose authority to sign is not apparent, the statement cannot be accepted as one the accuracy of which may be absolutely relied upon.

A report giving the number of quires or reams of paper used each week (instead of the actual number of copies printed) is not sufficiently definite. It may mean for an eight-page paper one-half the actual issue reported in quires. If it has four pages there are 24 copies to the quire. If eight pages, it will not be safe to allow for more than twelve copies to the quire. A quire is 24 sheets, and not 25. A ream is 480 sheets, and not 500. Furthermore, a statement expressed in quires or reams always includes waste and spoiled copies, which cannot be properly counted as circulation.

When the report or description of a paper that has been submitted to a publisher for revision comes back bearing a mark of acquiescence, or bearing no mark whatever, its return is taken as evidence that the publisher has no corrections to make, and it is taken as an admission that the rating of copies printed at present accorded him is high enough, whatever else may be said about it.

When a publisher furnishes a true statement showing the actual number of copies printed for each and every issue during the preceding year, added together to show the aggregate number and divided by the number of separate issues, thus arriving at the actual average of each issue, the statement being dated and signed, the paper is always rated in accordance.

When a publisher states what has been his average output for the past year, without giving the figures of each issue, his report fails to entitle him to the rating he appears to claim, because the editor of the Directory believes he ought to see and have on file the figures by which the result was arrived at, so that he may be assured that the calculation was made with accuracy. No publisher can tell what his average edition has been without first causing the figures to be set down and the necessary calculations made; and when that has been done, he may just as well send the figures for examination, and to be placed on file at the office of the Directory. A mistake may have been made which a glance would reveal. An unwillingness to submit the figures for inspection is always regarded as a suspicious circumstance, and casts a doubt upon the accuracy of the figures claimed.

When the word "circulation" is used in a statement supplied to the Directory editor without definition or qualification, it fails to inform him whether it means the number of copies printed or it is intended as an estimate of the number of readers, figuring five or some other number for each copy. What he wants to know is the actual number of complete and perfect copies printed for the period of a full year. Statements expressed in even hundreds and even thousands are always open to suspicion. Spoiled copies and waste are not to be included in the count.

Daily papers having a Sunday issue are accorded a separate rating for the Sunday edition whenever separate statements are furnished, one for the week-day issues alone and a separate one for the Sunday edition alone.

When a morning and an evening edition of a daily are published, even though the evening edition has a different name, the circulation report is permitted to cover both editions, and be so stated in the book, provided all advertisements ordered in one edition of the paper appear in the other also without extra charge.

In cases where, for a considerable time, no information is received from a publisher concerning the circulation of his paper, it is the rule to occasionally reduce the rating, unless information from outside sources forces the impression that the present circulation rating is not too high.

In a town where one paper gives information about its output that is definite and satisfactory, and another gives information the accuracy of which no one would be justified in guaranteeing in the form in which it is given, a great deal of consideration is accorded to statements about the output of rival publications made by the publisher who has furnished definite and satisfactory information about his own, and very little to statements concerning his rivals made by the publisher who fails to give satisfactory information about his own publication.

Publishers who refrain from furnishing any information about the editions they issue, or who furnish information in a form that is not specific and authentic, are rated as issuing editions "exceeding" 1,000, 2,250, 4,000, 7,500, 12,500, 17,500, 20,000, 40,000 or 75,000. These ratings represent the opinion of the editor of the Directory at the time of going to press and are deemed to be as definite as it is advisable to attempt in the face of the fact that the publisher evidently has a reason for concealment that is satisfactory to himself.

Whenever the marks #, ##, ### (explained on the first printed page of the Directory) appear against the circulation rating of a paper, the circulation rating of the paper so marked is not given in the list in Part II. of the Directory, or in other tabulations, but in place of the rating the doubt mark only is given.

Publishers of newspapers and other periodicals are aware that it costs nothing to have a correct description inserted in the American Newspaper Directory. Neither is any payment demanded or accepted for inserting correct figures showing the number of copies printed. All that is requisite, in either case, is to furnish the information in a form that will admit of verification. If a publisher wishes to supplement the description of his paper by a displayed advertisement or a "publisher's announcement" he pays for the advertising space in accordance with the advertising rates established; but such advertisements or publishers' announcements have no influence upon the circulation rating accorded a paper, nor is any influence needed, because every paper is credited with the exact circulation its publisher claims, if he furnishes the information in the form that is demanded from every one of his competitors.

To the daily edition of this paper Rowell's American Newspaper Directory accords the so-called gold marks (◎◎), the meaning of which is set forth as follows:

(◎◎) Advertisers value this paper more for the class and quality of its circulation than for the mere number of copies printed. [Among the old chemists gold was symbolically represented by the sign ◎.—Webster's Dictionary.]

Publisher's announcement.—The Montgomery ADVERTISER, "Alabama's Only Metropolitan Newspaper," leads all State contemporaries in the volume of local and foreign advertising printed, in face of the fact that its local and foreign rates are higher than any other Alabama newspaper. Particularly is the ADVERTISER's lead pronounced in Educational, Banking and similar high-class advertising, demonstrating the paper's prestige, influence and widely-diffused circulation. One of the very few Southern newspapers that has an absolute invariable rate-card, and the only Alabama newspaper that permitted an exhaustive examination by the Association of American Advertisers. Montgomery, the home of the ADVERTISER, is the commercial, political and social capital, as well as the geographical center of Alabama, and is the fastest growing city in the South.

Publisher's announcement.—The Arizona REPUBLICAN is the only morning paper at Phoenix, the capital, which is a modern city of 12,000 people, situated in the Salt River Valley, a body of rich farming land in a semi-tropical climate equal in size to the State of Rhode Island and now having a population of 30,000, which will be increased ten-fold as soon as the U. S. Government irrigation works now in course of construction on Salt River are completed. All these people are at the very door of the REPUBLICAN and are reached on the morning of publication either by private or rural free delivery carrier systems. Moreover, the REPUBLICAN goes into 70 per cent of the postoffices of Arizona and has more circulation than all other territorial papers combined. It is positively the first newspaper which reaches the people of Arizona and is the only one which completely covers the territory. Equipped with perfecting press and battery of linotypes. Exclusive morning Associated Press franchise. Write for sample copies and rates.

Publisher's announcement.—The Los Angeles TIMES is the favorite newspaper of the rich and productive Southwest. Its rapidly growing circulation and the enormous volume of its advertising is convincing evidence of its vast superiority over other local journals. The aggregate number, as well as the total amount of its classified advertising, exceeds that of the five other Los Angeles newspapers combined, and the TIMES does not resort to the use of premiums, souvenirs or chromos in its successful efforts to secure this business.

The TIMES is the biggest newspaper in the world in size and volume of advertising printed of all classes.

Rates—Classified, 1c. per word daily, 1½c. per word Sunday; minimum, 25c. Display, 8c. per line daily, 10c. Sunday. Details and sample copies mailed upon application.

 The absolute correctness of the latest circulation rating accorded the Enquirer is guaranteed by the publishers of Rowell's American Newspaper Directory, who will pay one hundred dollars to the first person who successfully controverts its accuracy.

Publisher's announcement.—The above rating shows practically only the circulation of the ENQUIRER before it absorbed the Herald on Nov. 16, 1907. The consolidation of the two circulations gave the ENQUIRER over 54,000 daily. Duplicates were then cut out, leaving the sworn average for January, 1908, 49,052. Largest circulation in Oakland guaranteed.

Publisher's announcement.—The SUNSET MAGAZINE, started in May, 1898, has grown to be the characteristic magazine of the West, with its artistic half-tone engravings and its articles and stories from the best Western writers. In its pages readers will find entertaining descriptive matter concerning all the country west of the Rockies. The magazine is growing and extending its field rapidly and increasing its circulation monthly. For December, 1906, 75,000 copies were printed. December, 1907, its sworn circulation was 104,000 copies. The magazine offers unprecedented opportunities for advertisers. Its readers form a peculiarly high grade class, made up largely of men and women who demand an outing and travel whenever opportunity offers, who love nature and look to the West for new things in life—new scenic wonders, new artistic developments, new literary creations.

 The absolute correctness of the latest circulation rating accorded the Telegram is guaranteed by the publishers of Rowell's American Newspaper Directory, who will pay one hundred dollars to the first person who successfully controverts its accuracy.

Publisher's announcement.—The Bridgeport TELEGRAM is the only morning paper published in Bridgeport or Fairfield County. We guarantee that the TELEGRAM has the largest circulation of any daily paper published in Fairfield County. It thoroughly circulates on all the R. F. D. routes and all of the suburban towns by local agents. The TELEGRAM is purely a family paper delivered by carrier and mail. We will give every facility to any advertiser or board of examiners access to our circulation books, or in fact any way they may choose to arrive at the facts. If we cannot get business by giving a square deal we will close up shop. Send for a sample copy and rates. A flat rate to all; 1½¢ a line. Want advertisements, 1 cent a word.

Publisher's announcement.—The LEADER, every evening and Sunday morning, with a circulation of 10,000 daily and 10,000 Sunday, and steadily growing, is the most in-fluent and the ONLY evening Republican newspaper in the city, and ONE of the strongest in the State. It carries the best class of advertising and has never failed to bring the best results. Carries more "Want Ad" advertising than any other New Haven paper. The LEADER is a prosperous, growing newspaper, metropolitan in its style, reliable in its contents and progressive in its methods. No advertiser can cover the field satisfactorily without using the LEADER. The net daily increase in circulation for 1907 was 2,100.

EVENING REGISTER; every evening except Sunday, Sunday morning, and COLUMBIAN REGISTER, Thursdays; Independent; daily twelve to twenty, Sunday twenty to thirty, weekly ten and twelve pages 18x22; subscription—daily $6, Sunday $2, weekly $1; established—daily 1840, Sunday 1877, weekly 1812; John Day Jackson, editor; Register Publishing Co., publishers (1-8).

Sunday issue: 11,107 in 1904
11,311 in 1905
11,662 in 1906
12,104 in 1907

Publisher's announcement.—The REGISTER, with largest circulation in its history in 1907—a steady and permanent growth—is by far the best advertising medium and most influential paper in the largest city in Connecticut. It reaches the buying class and always brings best results. Many local advertisers use no other medium. Chief want advertising medium. Carries 30 more columns of advertising a day than any other paper in the city. Largest and best equipment in the city—two Hoe presses, seven linotypes. If you want results, the REGISTER meets the test. It always sells goods. Permission given Association of American Advertisers to examine circulation.

MORNING JOURNAL AND COURIER; every morning except Sunday, and CONNECTICUT HERALD AND WEEKLY JOURNAL, Thursdays; republican; sixteen pages 17x23; subscription—daily $6, weekly $1; established—daily 1832, weekly 1766; N. G. Osborn, editor; The Carlington Publishing Co., publishers (2-8).

Copies printed: This paper had credit for an average issue of 3,100 in 1899, since which time it has not furnished a report, but was credited with printing more than 2,250 copies for the years 1904, 1906 and 1907.

Publisher's announcement.—The MORNING JOURNAL-COURIER, New Haven, Conn. The oldest daily in Connecticut. With up-to-date equipment the JOURNAL-COURIER is the oldest and the youngest daily in the State. It is abreast of the times in every respect. Long-established prestige, rapidly increasing family circulation, make it indispensable for advertisers who desire to cover New Haven and vicinity.

PALLADIUM; every morning except Sunday, and WEEKLY, Fridays; republican; twelve to twenty-four pages 17x24; subscription—daily $6, weekly $1; established—daily 1840, weekly 1828; David Adams editor; The Palladium Company, publishers (2-8).

8,659 in 1906
8,614 in 1907

Publisher's announcement.—The New Haven UNION furnishes a sworn average circulation statement for 1907, showing 16,548 paid copies daily. It is the only one-cent publication in New Haven that reaches the classes as well as the masses. Advertisers get results. We guarantee our circulation and prove it by carriers, postoffice and express receipts, and, lastly, by our circulation books and paper bills. Our rate per thousand for guaranteed paid circulation is cheaper than that of any other newspaper in New Haven. The UNION is the only Evening paper that permitted the Association of American Advertisers (composed of 100 of the leading advertising firms of the United States) to examine its circulation books, paper accounts and cash receipts from subscription, proving fully that the paper has all it claims. We guarantee all we claim, write it in the contract. No advertiser can cover the evening field thoroughly without using the UNION.

Publisher's announcement.—The BULLETIN

sets all of its news; covers its local field thoroughly, besides covering all the good news of the surrounding towns; has its own carriers in Willimantic, Danielson and Putnam; is the only paper delivered on all of the forty-one rural free delivery routes in Eastern Conn. and has no street sales—all routed delivery—and gives the advertiser more for his money than any paper in Eastern Connecticut. It is conceded to be the leading and most influential paper in its territory.

The BULLETIN has the largest circulation of any Eastern Conn. paper, three to four times that of any local one, and its circulation is constantly increasing, as shown by the accompanied report. There is every reason to think the circulation will reach 8,000 during 1908.

To the daily edition of this paper Rowell's American Newspaper Directory accords the so-called Gold Marks (◎◎), the meaning of which is stated to be that advertisers value it more for the class and quality of its circulation than for the mere number of copies printed.

☛ The absolute correctness of the latest circulation rating accorded the Evening Star is guaranteed by the publishers of Rowell's American Newspaper Directory, who will pay one hundred dollars to the first person who successfully controverts its accuracy.

Publisher's announcement.—The ARMY AND NAVY REGISTER was established in 1879. On January 4, 1908, the 1,462 consecutive weekly number was printed. During these twenty-nine years no issue has been missed.

During the year 1907 the ARMY AND NAVY REGISTER printed 32,896 lines more display advertising than the next highest medium of its class.

In the panic months of 1907—October, November and December—twenty-six annual advertising contracts expired, of which nineteen, 73 per cent, were renewed. The ARMY AND NAVY REGISTER having made this record proves that it is a valuable medium for advertisers.

The officers of the United States Army, Navy, Marine Corps and Revenue Cutter Service and their families, buy their food supplies in part through Subsistence Stores of the Commissary General of Subsistence, their personal outfits and furnishings for their dwellings, very largely by mail. Their expenditure for necessities and luxuries amounts to several million dollars each year. The REGISTER is the one medium that surely reaches this class.

Publisher's announcement.—The Jacksonville, Fla., METROPOLIS is Jacksonville's best paper. The sworn circulation for 1907 shows 10,830 copies daily. We are now printing and selling over 11,000 copies daily, which is by far the greatest circulation ever attained by any newspaper in Florida. The population of Jacksonville is about 50,000 souls. We cover Jacksonville most thoroughly and have a large circulation in the State outside of Jacksonville. If you use the METROPOLIS you cover the City of Jacksonville and Florida most thoroughly. The METROPOLIS is the only paper in Jacksonville that permitted the Association of American Advertisers to make a thorough inspection of its circulation books and accounts, and was issued a certificate proving every claim made. E. KATZ, Temple Court, N. Y. Representative.

ST. PETERSBURG INDEPENDENT

EVERY EVENING and WEEKLY

Independent Building, - St. Petersburg, Fla.

The WEEKLY INDEPENDENT has 1,350 subscribers—every one paid in advance. Its rates are ten cents an inch, flat, on time contracts. Twelve pages, 15x22. Each page contains live local news. Considered model paper of Florida by press and public.

The EVENING INDEPENDENT was a success from start; carries full United Press dispatches and three news services' matter; three reporters cover city field; 750 fully paid-up subscribers on books inside of 60 days; list now 1,000 and growing. Covers entire Pinellas peninsula. Eight pages, 15x22. Rate on time contracts, 8 cents per inch, flat.

DON'T WRITE UNLESS YOU WILL PAY MY RATE.

I refuse rods of advertising every month because I do not allow advertising agents to dictate value of my space to me. I know I have a good advertising medium because I carry $1,500 worth of advertising each month for local merchants.

St. Petersburg is the most popular resort town in Florida. both summer and winter. Ten years old and has 4,500 population. Has 10,000 to 15,000 winter tourists during season. Post-office receipts for 1907 over 1906 show 39 per cent increase in sale of stamps. Banks tripled deposits and paying 28 per cent profit. Grandest climate in the world. Ask those who have been here.

P. S.—I am the Powell who for seven years edited the American Advertiser, Chicago, and later of Delhi, N. Y., before M. Lee Starke bought it. I am the Powell who used to spend $15,000 a month advertising department stores. I am the Powell who managed a million and a half dollar mail-order business in St. Louis. I am the Powell who wants your business if you will pay for it, but I do not give space away. I don't need the money that bad. I am making $1,000 a month profit as it is, and patent medicine men with $13 a year contracts for a foot of reading matter will please save stamps.

Publisher's announcement.—The basis of American prosperity is AGRICULTURE. The right arm of agriculture is LIVE STOCK. The cattle, horses, sheep and swine of the United States are worth three million dollars. The representative newspaper of this basic industry is the BREEDER'S GAZETTE, a 48 to 68-page weekly. Established in 1881. The growth of its circulation has been steadily forward. No name is kept on its subscription list after the period paid for in advance has expired. Its circulation is therefore made up live subscriptions. Advertising rate, 35c. a line, flat. Full information and detailed circulation statement sent on application.

"The GAZETTE has been a tremendous and inestimable force in the nation's progress along the lines of judicious improvement in animal husbandry, and does a work not even approached by any other medium."—F. D. Coburn, Secretary of Agriculture of Kansas.

Publisher's announcement.—If the purchasing power of the field covered by a trade journal is more important than the number of copies it prints, then the AMERICAN SUGAR INDUSTRY AND BEET SUGAR GAZETTE can justly claim to have a circulation that is of the utmost value to advertisers; for it is read by the men who buy machinery and supplies for the sugar factories, as well as by those who recommend such purchases all over the globe. This journal is read closely because it contains practical information about field and factory operations in every issue, and because it presents, in an exhaustive manner, the sugar news of the world.

AMERICAN SWINEHERD; monthly; agriculture and live stock; fifty-two to ninety-six pages 8x11½; subscription 50 cents; established 1891; Jas. Baynes & Son, editors and publishers. Office, 323 Dearborn street (3-6 P).

Publisher's announcement.—Advertisers in the Decatur Herald are guaranteed an average daily and Sunday circulation exceeding 12,000 for 1908. Average last three months of 1907, 12,354—12,458 for December—and 11,335 for the year 1907—is sufficient circulation for a city of 32,000 and surrounding territory, and indicates that the Herald covers its field. Decatur is surrounded by the richest farming country, and is the center of a network of railroads and interurbans. Advertisers in the Herald are safe in going after business in Herald territory. The Herald is the only morning paper in Decatur, has a cash paid circula-

Publisher's announcement.—The JOURNAL-NEWS is the only evening paper in a city having 75,000 population. Evansville is a manufacturing center of 540 plants, employing thousands of skilled laborers.
These people haven't time to even look at a morning paper. If you use the JOUR-NAL-NEWS you cover the entire field most thoroughly. We guarantee that our evening and Sunday editions average over 18,000 copies each issue, or a larger circulation than all of the other papers in Evansville combined. E. Katz, Special Advertising Agency, Temple Court, New York—

The Home Magazine

$1 an Agate Line Flat, 10 per cent discount for quarter pages or over in one issue.

The story of the value of a magazine as an advertising medium is easily told by its advertising patronage. The magazine which enjoys a growing appreciation by the reading public will show a corresponding increase in the estimation of live advertisers. The year just closed has been a most prosperous one for The Home Magazine. Its value as a magazine is attested by the fact that its advertising patronage has more than doubled during the past year—a better showing than any magazine of its class. Take the September number, for instance. This number carried 12,996 lines of cash advertising against 5,380 lines September, 1906—an increase of 7,616 lines, or 141 per cent. The increase the first nine months this year over the same period last year averaged 107 per cent.

THE OCTOBER HOME MAGAZINE

also shows a very remarkable increase. Here are the Figures for October, 1906 and 1907:

Year	Columns	Lines	Increase Over Previous Year
1906	41	6,849	2,371
1907	82	15,088	8,239

This is an increase of 214 per cent, October, 1907, over October, 1906, and 120 per cent, October, 1907, over October, 1906. Truly a remarkable showing.

The value of The Home Magazine to an advertiser lies in the fact that over 90 per cent of its total circulation of 205,000 goes direct by mail into the home—less than 10 per cent being news-stands—70 per cent of the entire circulation is in the prosperous Central West.

Publisher's announcement.—The Hutchinson News is the very best paper in Hutchinson, a city of 15,000, covering that territory most thoroughly. Hutchinson has the largest salt plants in the world and the only soda ash plant west of the Mississippi River. We guarantee an average sworn circulation of 4,800 copies for the Daily and 1,800 copies for the Weekly. Foreign advertisers will make no mistake in including it in their estimate, as it is the only paper in that town that furnishes a sworn circulation statement, as you will note from rating above.
